Star Words 2026

On the first Sunday of 2025, during worship, we gave people the opportunity to pick a paper star from a basket. On one side of each star was a word. Each one was different. Without listing a sample of the possible words, imagine fruits of the spirit (Galatians 5:22-23) or positive characteristics. That Sunday, we read Isaiah 60:1, "Arise, shine, for your light has come." The "star words" are a chance for us to take the light we've received and shine it forth for other people.

On December 28, we heard inspiring testimonies from people about their experience with the star words in 2025. So we decided to offer each person a star word for 2026. On Sunday, we ran out of star words, so we will have more available in the office and again this Sunday, January 11.

Keep your stars. Take them home. Put them someplace prominent. Throughout 2026, these little star words can serve as a reminder of God's voice. They are an opportunity to engage with God throughout the year and then reflect on what this engagement meant at the end of the year. On December 27, 2026, I hope to hear more testimonies about what this experience is like for you this year.

If you write in a journal, write about your experience with your star word. In the coming months, keep track of how this word speaks to you in different ways. The Spirit might use the word to prompt one thought on one day and another on another day. It will be interesting to see how we change and our relationship to our word changes throughout 2026. Then, on December 27, we can share what we've experienced.

I can't wait to hear your testimonies when we share our experiences with the star words in December.

You'll have many opportunities in the coming year to join together and discuss what it means to be a Baptist at UBC. We'll look at what Baptists believe, how UBC's leadership and volunteers are organized, what we believe about baptism and communion, and the many ministry opportunities here at the church. Even if you've been a member of UBC for years, we think you'll discover something you never knew about us.

Looking for Helpers

If you are willing to help with various small tasks, that don't involve a ladder or hammer, associated with the office and/or our worship
space, please contact Linda in the church office.
We'd like to create a team that we could send these small task requests to and then anyone who is available and willing to help with that particular task could respond.

Thanks for considering to serve in this way.
